SUBJECT: Updating of DCID 2/3 and DCID 2/8

Please update line one of the preamble to subject issuances by substituting "Executive Order 12333" where
"Executive Order 11905" appears in the 18 May 1976 text.
No other changes are necessary.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

IC/82/3421

MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

25X1

FROM: Walter Elder
Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: Revised DCI Directives

1. As threatened, here are my proposed revisions of DCID Nos. 2/3 and 2/8. Please see that they are reviewed as appropriate.

2. For your information, the format is modeled along the lines of the approved directive on [REDACTED] intelligence, also a service of common concern.

3. Since this directive will be classified, why can't we say [REDACTED] right out loud? I've suggested that FBIS come out of hiding; they're tempted.

25X1

4. I have some specific questions:

a) In 2.d. - what do we really mean when we say CIA will "coordinate" the use of [REDACTED] sources?

b) In 2.g. - what do we really mean when we say we try not to "jeopardize the interests" of organizations and individuals?

c) In 3.b. - "approved" direct contacts? Approved by whom?

5. Please ensure that [REDACTED] is invited to let the sunshine in and to bring this whole business up to date, as needed. The language reflects an earlier era, and the ways of actually doing business may have changed drastically.

25X1

6. This submission is late for the 27 May status report, but at least we can get the dialogue started.
